A Flash from Our Week

Reading: Expository Text

This week we are finishing up with nonfiction text. We will practice highlighting important information, and using graphic organizers to retell the story. We will also test reading levels to prepare for Book clubs and our first book reports.

Math: Groups

Group A take's their addition test Monday and moves on to estimating and addition. Group B is moving on to subtraction. Group C is moving to subtraction and problem solving. Group D will finish up and take their test mid-week and then move to measuring.

Social Studies: Unit 4 Economics

We are sharing weekend homework Monday on how things are made. Then we will work on map skills review.

Science: Unit D, Ch. 2 Weather

This week we will be looking at cloud formation and the tools we use to measure weather conditions.

Religion:

They are talking about the gospel, liturgy and how to follow God.

Scholastic orders are due by Monday. Please order and support our classroom library. Students came home with a sequence organizer and an item to research. They will look up how it is made, sequence it and bring it in to share on Monday. Please join us Tuesday mornings for Stations and Wednesday morning for Adoration. The students are very proud of their prayerful days! Thursday is a Jeans Day! Send your student in with $1 and they can wear non-uniform clothing!

Snapshot from last week!

This week we did special things for Lent! We learned all about St. Therese and her little sacrifices she would make to get to Heaven. The 8th grade girls came over and helped us make sacrifice beads to count our sacrifices for Jesus. Father David came by to bless them for us. We used them after mass on Friday to pray a decade of the rosary next to the window of St. Therese. The girls have started using them to pray decades of the rosary during recess! We also shared pretzels with the whole school and prayed a prayer over them!
